

FLAMES MENACE ENGLISH MILLS; BLAME SINN FEIN

Troops Repulse Attacks Near Dublin.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
LONDON, Feb. 13.—Last night the Manchester area was the scene of seven mysterious fires which are attributed to Sinn Fein by the Sunday Evening Telegram.

Four big mills in Manchester were set afire by incendiaries, who broke windows and poured paraffin oil on inflammable material piled inside. At one factory a watchman was encountered by three men, and when he ran shots were fired at him.

There were two fires at Oldham and one at Rochdale, all being big mills. All these fires were started in the cellars.

Raiders Are Fruitless.

The police raided many places in Manchester last night, but without result except the circulation of descriptions of a number of men "wanted."

The fires were discovered promptly and little damage was done.

Last night two bombs were hurled through a window in a billiard room at Macdon, County Cork, where a number of black and tans were playing billiards. One bomb exploded, wounding two auxiliaries. Later heavy rifle machine gun firing was directed toward the town but there were no casualties.

FIGHTING NEAR DUBLIN

BY JOHN LESTER.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
DUBLIN, Feb. 13.—The military authorities report today that a military lorry was bombed and fired upon from behind a wall near Booterstown, a village between Dublin and Kington.

Last night the fire was returned and several of the attackers were seen to fall. There were no military casualties.

Official reports state that an attack also took place at Merrion Gates, three miles from Dublin, today, and that two civilians were dead during the fight. One of the men slain was James Brophy, night watchman for the Dublin Tramway company, who was struck while in bed by a stray bullet which came through the window from the scene of the ambush.

DEVIL FLAYS PARTITION.

BELFAST, Feb. 13.—Joseph Devlin, nationalist member of parliament, alluding in the course of a speech today to a recent statement by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, that he (Devlin) might become the first member of the Ulster parliament to desert but an "All Ireland" legislator. Mr. Devlin described the proposal of the Ulster partition as an "insult" and pleaded for the people of the north and south of Ireland to join in a spirit of good will in devising a plan to insure Ireland's future.

OUTLAWRY ON THE RISE.

DUBLIN, Feb. 13.—An increase in the operations against the crown forces in Ireland in a recent statement made to the Associated Press by a high officer of the Irish Republican army, has been noted during the last week. Official reports today covering the week end activities deal with "outlaw" not only in Dublin and throughout the south and west, but even in the northern county of Monaghan, a region heretofore quiet.

From two districts in Mayo the police reported finding yesterday the roads treacherous, with stone barricades walled across the highways, as if in preparation for ambushes. One of the reports emanated from Ballaghassan, the home town of John Dillon. At Macroom, which since the Kilmichael ambush has been occupied by large forces of auxiliaries, a fusillade was fired and three bombs were thrown.

Rakes British Role in Erin.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Lord Hugh Cecil, member of parliament for Oxford university, in a lengthy lecture to the London Times on Ireland declared that the government's record is "one of blood stained inefficiency," and that Sir Hamar Greenwood's advent as chief secretary "has imparted vigor to the administration, also blemished with horrible stains."

He charged the irregular constabulary with infamous crimes and asserts that the government would have been far wiser to have kept the administration in the hands of civilian magistrates.

Japanese House Puts O. K. on Budget for 1921

TOKYO, Feb. 13.—The 1921 budget was adopted without change by the house of representatives today. The vote was 246 to 165. Open air mass meetings in protest against the policy of the government were held by the opposition party here today.

SPRING HAS COME, THE CAMERA SINGS, BUT—

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong out for a stroll; Loretta Thompson out for a spring canter along the bridge path, and Virginia Browning and Ellen Reilly happily engaged in a spring sport, or is it a pastime?

WE HAD SPRING YESTERDAY, BUT DON'T BE CERTAIN

Birds Sing, Marbles Roll, Lovers Stroll.

Seemingly spring is here. Yesterday the sun shone with true springtime warmth and was reflected in the smiles of the men and women, boys and girls, babies and puppies that frolicked in the parks.

Henry E. Cordell, 2210 Sunnyside avenue, captured the first butterfly. James McGowan reported what he thought was the first robin, but robins were seen in many sunny places.

Unmistakable signs of spring, but listen to the prophets:

Henry J. Cox, chief of the United States weather bureau, says: "Don't be too certain that spring has come. It will be cooler tomorrow, and we may have snow before the week is out. In fact, we never are sure of spring in Chicago. We have had a mild winter, but we may have a cold and unpleasant spring."

Ellas T. Colbert, one of the first professors of astronomy in the old Dearborn college, a man who has seen ninety springs come and go, was not a bit cheerful.

"Yes, Sunday has been beautiful," he said. "But we can not count on the weather to remain fine. You know, this year the sun does not pass the equinox until 10 o'clock at night on March 20. So spring can not be here in reality until that hour." He recalled many cold and late springs that followed beautiful days in February.

Attorney George W. Underwood was a bit more optimistic. "When I feel spring in the air I am content to say spring is here and rejoice. I can still rejoice in the springtime, and as long as it is warm outdoors I call it spring."

Earliest Spring, Coast Guard Says.

"This has been the mildest winter and the earliest and most beautiful spring I have ever seen," Charles Carland, commander of the United States coast guard station, said. "Thirty years ago there was a mild winter and an early spring, but it did not equal this one. Why any one should want to go to California or Florida to escape such weather as we have had this winter is beyond me."

George Hotchkiss, 1015 Elmwood avenue, Evanston, retired editor of several lumber journals, in 1884 went to California in search of gold and mild weather. He declared this winter to be the most remarkable one he had ever seen.

Lighthouse Man Amazed.

E. J. Moore has kept the North Shore lighthouse for thirty-three years. He keeps accurate weather records.

"Fifty years ago there was a winter nearly as mild as this one," he said. "But I have never in my life seen a winter quite so queer. The average temperature for the last two weeks has been 32 above. This is fifteen degrees warmer than the average for February. Sunday was a real spring day. I believe that spring has really come."

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 13.—[Special.]—Tom Moore, Goldwyn star, was married today at noon at his home in Beverly Hills to Rene Adree, now in his film company, formerly in New York musical comedy. Mabel Normand was maid of honor and Jack Pickford was best man. The bride couple will go to Honolulu for their honeymoon.

Former husband of Mary (Phoebe) Mankin, Pickford, the romance which resulted in today's marriage began when the couple met in New York, where Mr. Moore had gone in search of a girl for a new photograph.

come to stay. I cannot account for it."

Some Cold Februaries.

Policemen and firemen have always dreaded the month of February. Old timers in the department will never forget the year 1894. That was the year 300 men joined the department on Dec. 14.

"I was one of the three hundred," said Lieut. William Murphy of the Desplains street station. "When we went on duty that night the weather was mild. Before morning it was 7 below zero. Several recruits who were not equipped with ear muffs froze their ears."

"That was a tough winter. It was particularly severe all the month of February. Some of the three hundred didn't get thawed out until the next Fourth of July."

1881 a Bit Cool.

According to John Meaney, a veteran of forty-six years' service, the winter of 1884 was mild compared with that of forty years ago.

"I was traveling in Bridgeport the winter of 1881," he said, "and it was so cold that the brass buttons dropped off my coat one night when I sneaked into a hole to get a 'heat on.'"

"Yes," he continued, "and the winter of 1889-91 was a hummer. There were several days in February when the thermometer registered from 5 to 20 below zero."

ATTACK ON U.S. SAILORS WORK OF HOLDUP MEN

Manila, P. I., Feb. 13.—[Special.]—The American sailors who were fired on at Vladivostok were attacked by a party of Russians, probably for the purpose of holding them up, according to advices received today by Admiral Strauss, commanding the Asiatic fleet.

The sailors were visiting outlying districts of Vladivostok when they encountered a group of Russians, believed to be former army officers, according to the report. During an argument and an attempted holdup the Americans were fired on and two of them wounded.

Russian police arrested a number of civilians who were believed to have instigated the trouble.

The affair has no international aspect warranting the presence of Admiral Strauss at Vladivostok, the report said.

Naval officers here said the affair was considered closed. Admiral Strauss departed tonight for Olongapo for inspection of naval stations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 13.

Republican leaders in congress are awaiting disclosure of Mr. Harding's fiscal policy for guidance in tax revision. They hope he will endorse refunding of the war debt over a long term of years, repeal of the excess profits tax without any substitute therefor if possible, increase of the tariff and the levy of a special sales tax to raise the fund for the soldiers bonus.

BERNE, Feb. 13.—While every effort is being made to remove hatred between former belligerents, the war still continues between deserters hanging about in Switzerland.

In Basel, where many of these deserters congregate, police are powerless to keep the peace and have appealed to the Salvation Army. German and French deserters are still in considerable numbers on Saturday night are apt to come to blows, whereas men who spent miserable years in trenches and are often maimed, although they don't associate with former enemies, don't fight them either.

Swiss authorities would, long since have expelled all deserters who are undesirable if the deserters didn't always plead that sending them across the frontier means consigning them to certain death by shooting.

WILSON MADE NO PROMISE TO CANCEL DEBTS

Documents Show President Opposed It.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 13.—[Special.]—Not only is it untrue that President Wilson at the Paris peace conference promised the representatives of the allied powers that when the senate had ratified the peace treaty he would make every effort to have the United States government cancel the debts owed to it by the allies, but written proof exists that the president's position was quite to the contrary.

In a responsible and thoroughly informed official quarter this positive assertion was made tonight in answer to published statements that the senate committee on foreign relations "knew" that the president had given such assurances at Paris.

The charge against the president, it was declared, was "absolutely absurd."

Wilson "Directly Opposed."

The American representatives at Paris, it was explained, maintained a position directly contrary to this, and that position was in accord with President Wilson's views and was sustained by him. While the president, it was said, had declined to discuss the several proposals which aimed at having the United States wipe out the debts due from its war associates amounting in the aggregate to nearly $16,000,000,000, ample documentary proof of the president's opposition to these proposals was in existence, according to the information given tonight.

Several suggestions for having the United States "relieve" the allied governments of their obligations to the American government were made at Paris during the peace conference.

Debtors Made Overtures.

The three main proposals were substantially as follows:

1. That a financial section of the league of nations be created to adjust inter-allied indebtedness. This was rejected by America.
2. That the cost of the war be portioned among the allies on a percentage basis, the United States to be constructively considered as a participant from the war's beginning in August, 1914. The attitude of the American representatives toward this was so hostile it was soon dropped.
3. The proposal advocated by Keynes in behalf of Great Britain for an international bond issue to fund the allied debt.

A General Refusal.

To the Keynes proposal and, in fact, to all the suggestions made, the general response of the American representatives at Paris was that the United States had come to Paris to make peace with Germany and Austria, and not to settle the financial difficulties of the allies.

If President Wilson had ever made any such promise, it is now attributed to him. It is pointed out, the fact would have become known long ago.

Nothing is known to the financial experts of the government, it was further said today, to indicate that the allies will not be able to discharge their indebtedness to this country. The argument was advanced that if Germany could pay the heavy indemnity demanded of her by the recent meeting of the prime ministers the allied debtors of the United States certainly would be able to make good the large amounts they borrowed from the United States treasury.

Argentine Troops Expect Clash with Outlaw Force

(Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.)
Buenos Aires, Feb. 13.—Reports reaching Buenos Aires today from Santa Cruz declare that groups of bandits have been reinforced by striking ranchers and that the combined force is preparing a stand against the troops now on the way from Buenos Aires to quell the banditry.

The reports state that the force numbers about 700 men, all of whom are armed. This force is said to have prepared fortifications on a large ranch far in the interior. They are said to be holding there more than a dozen hostages, including officers of the rural police, an administrator, said to be a British subject, and four ranch foremen from the Punta Arenas region.

FRANCE SOON TO NEED 4 MILLION YANKS: RENAUD

German-Russian Attack Is Predicted.

BY HENRY WALES.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
PARIS, Feb. 13.—The United States must be ready to rush 4,000,000 troops to France if the Germans and Russians attack, warns Gen. Renaud, professor in the superior war school, in the French press today. Such an attack is easily possible, he says. The occupation of the Rhine district does not protect France, Gen. Renaud asserts, because hordes of Russians could wipe out the bridgeheads at the right bank of the Rhine, despite losses, while the Germans could cross Holland or Switzerland and attack the allies in the rear.

Allies' Losses Heavier.

Gen. Renaud makes the first official admission that the Germans inflicted heavier losses on the allies on the west front than they sustained, saying the Germans lost 2,000,000 men, the same number as the French. Great Britain lost 600,000; Belgium, 25,000; America, 55,000; and Russia, Portuguese, and Italian allies 25,000, making a total of 2,795,000 allies killed on the French front alone. Thus Gen. Joffre's statement that "this is a war of attrition" is exploded, as the Germans inflicted heavier losses, throughout than the allies.

Germany Killed 3 to 1.

"Counting the losses inflicted on the Russians, Serbs, Italians, and Roumanians on other fronts," he says, "the Germans killed three allied soldiers for every German killed."

The German success in slaughtering allied troops, Gen. Renaud declares, was due to three causes: Better instruction methods, superior armament, and more judicious employment of troops. He then demands that France reorganize its army to obtain the same superiority and "to give America time to intervene again and save the world's liberty."

$8,000,000 BOND ISSUE ASKED FOR 'DEBT PAYMENT'

Unusual Purpose Put Up to Voters on Feb. 22.

By OSCAR E. HEWITT.
The city's proposed $8,000,000 bond issue is unusual.
Bond issues for permanent improvements are almost commonplace in their frequency. It is taken for granted that substantial improvements from which the next generation will receive some benefit—should be contracted with bond money, rather than from the current tax income.
But the proposed $8,000,000 bond issue is not for permanent improvements. It is for the city's current needs. The difference in the purposes of bond issues is pointed out that readers may know definitely the object of the question which will be submitted to them on Feb. 22. Only twice in the last twenty years have bond issues for this purpose been submitted to the voters of Chicago.

Reasons for the Issue.
But from the city's corporate fund, money has been spent that has not been received. Therefore a deficit in the language of Mayor Thompson, the city's corporate fund is "deeper than the sea." That was his view in reviewing the year of 1920. Consequently a bond issue of $8,000,000 is requested of the people to pay the city's floating indebtedness.
This request originated with the city administration. Controller Harding presented the proposal to the council finance committee on Jan. 14. In his letter of transmittal he said that he submitted the request for information and approval of the committee on finance ordinances for the issuance of general corporate bonds to the extent of $12,500,000, and for their submission to the voters Feb. 22, 1921. The letter concluded:
"In order that this ordinance may go to the ballot Feb. 22 it is necessary that it be passed by the city council at the next meeting. Your prompt attention will therefore be obliged."

No Explanation Offered.
No written argument for nor explanatory statement of the bond issue accompanied the ordinance, as was the case when the two previous bond issues for current expenses were submitted to the legislative body for approval. However, the ordinance presented to the committee were prepared by the corporation counsel's office.
The committee recommended the ordinance to the council, which contained a bond issue of $12,500,000. The bond ordinance approved by the committee permitted the use of the bond money "for the corporate purposes of the city of Chicago without restrictions or limitations."

But the city council in approving of the bond ordinance Jan. 19 made two important changes. The sum was reduced from $12,500,000 to $8,000,000, and the purpose for which the money may be used was made more definite. The proposal of a bond issue of $12,500,000 involved a total payment of $18,792,500 in both principal and interest. The $8,000,000 means an aggregate payment of $12,042,500 in principal and interest.

Purpose Specified by Ordinance.
Instead of permitting the use of the bond money for any corporate purpose, the $8,000,000 bond ordinance specifies that the money is wanted "for the purpose of paying indebtedness incurred heretofore rendered against the city of Chicago and outstanding of the 31st day of December, 1920."

The bond ordinance was passed by a vote of 46 to 11. Then later there was passed another ordinance calling for a special election at which to submit to the voters the bond ordinance. This will be held at the time and place of the date on which the aldermanic election is held—Feb. 22.
Under the law a referendum on city bonds is necessary. They cannot be issued without approval of a majority of the voters who cast ballots on the question. The bonds are payable from taxes alone.

8,000% INCREASE ASKED BY MAYOR OF HOOPESTON

Aldermen Want 5,000 Per Cent Increase.

Confronting post-war conditions and the inevitable economic stress of world-wide readjustment, Hoopston, Ill., is debating rather vehemently the question: Shall salaries of city servants be increased? The citizens are defending the negative. The city servants are unanimously yesing.
Their demands are said to be without precedent in the annals of labor disputes. The mayor seeks an increase of 8,000 per cent and the aldermen 5,000 per cent. The mayor now receives fifty cents a year, or nine and six-tenths mills a week, and the aldermen twenty-five cents a year, or four and eight-tenths mills a week. They are paid by the year and have no expense accounts. The mayor demands $8 a week and the aldermen $5.

What's What in Hoopston.
Hoopston, the municipal who's who, discloses, is in the northeast corner of Vermilion county, about 150 miles south of Chicago, and has a population of 5,000, with a main street, public library, telephones, banks, a grain elevator, paved streets, sewers, and two newspapers.
A resolution embodying the demands was introduced at the last meeting of the city council by Ald. Thomas Haas and adopted without a dissenting vote. As soon as the citizenry heard of it a mass meeting was held in the chamber of commerce rooms. Two former mayors, I. E. Merritt and William Moore, oppose the demands.
"For forty years," declared Mr. Moore, "Hoopston's mayors have been glad to serve the people of this commonwealth for 50 cents a year. This resolution is indicative of the shocking state of affairs that now obtains in this country. It would be a reckless waste of money to accede to the demands. These men are dollar mad."

It's the "Holy City."
Other speakers set forth the "enviable fame gained by Hoopston as the 'Holy City.'" "We've never had a saloon here. We have more church-going people than any metropolis of the size in the world. We have well paved and clean streets and handsome homes. Hoopston has never been broke. It now has $50,000 in the city treasury." A rumor that the mayor and aldermen may go on strike if the demands are not granted could not be verified last night.

BISHOP TO HEAD $3,000,000 UNION COLLEGE DRIVE

Bishop Sheldon M. Griswold of Evanston was elected president of the Middle West Alumni Association of Union college, Schenectady, N. Y., at the annual meeting of organization at the city club last Saturday night.

He is of the class of 1882. The bishop will direct the local alumni drive being made for a $3,000,000 fund for the institution. More than one-half the fund is intended for financing an increase in the salaries of professors at the college. E. T. Perkins of the Perkins Engineering company will also aid in organizing the drive.

Among those who attended the meeting and addressed the delegates were C. E. Patterson, vice president of the General Electric company of New York; the Rt. Rev. J. P. Dwyer of Milwaukee, of the class of 1885, and now in charge of child welfare work in Wisconsin; and Bishop Griswold.

300 Jobless Are Refused Permit to Sleep in Church

New York, Feb. 13.—Three hundred unemployed men were denied permission to spend the night in St. Augustine's chapel of Trinity church, where they marched today after attending services at St. Mark's chapel here. The rector consulted Dr. William T. Manning, who declared the Salvation Army and public lodging houses provided ample shelter and that the chapel's sanitary arrangements made it unfit for sleeping purposes. The men declined the rector's offer of free tickets entitling them to shelter at the Salvation Army hotel.

BIG MEN SEE A GOLDEN GLOW TO FUTURE OF U. S.

Every Line of Business Is Nearly "Over Grade."

New York, Feb. 13.—[Special.]—Bankers, manufacturers, and business men generally are optimistic regarding the business and financial future. Big men, leaders of business and of business thought, do not hesitate to talk optimistically.

Elbert H. Gary, chairman United States Steel corporation, says:
"In my judgment, there is no difficult situation to overcome. Notwithstanding the most disagreeable features of our daily life, of which we hear or read, we have passed through or out of them, or nearly so. We are rapidly returning to more normal conditions."

W. P. G. Harding Cheerful.
W. P. G. Harding, head of the National Federal Reserve system, says:
"The readjustments which have taken place, painful as they have been, have been attended with less privation, less unemployment, and have been less severe than in other countries where the expansion of bank credit and currency has been proportionately greater, and the prospect for revival is also far better here than elsewhere."

Charles H. Sabin, president Guaranty Trust company, says:
"It is the feeling of our officers that this period marks the turn of the tide in declining prices and of liquidation. Although many readjustments are yet to be made in the months and years to come, there is every reasonable assurance of an early return to normal business conditions, to stabilized prices, to easier money, and to larger business opportunities."

P. H. Gadsden, president American Electric Railway association, says:
"We have come out of the great economic encounter strong, efficient, and courageous."
Bankers draw attention to enormous financial resources. The annual retail trade exceeds $1,000,000,000, while its wholesale trade is easily $2,000,000,000.
"These features," says Guy Emerson, vice president National Bank of Commerce, New York, "represent a public demand for food, clothing, transportation, housing, and a great variety of the necessities and conveniences of life. Its effect may not be fully manifest this month or next, but its powerful influence cannot be long delayed."

POLICE ASKED TO RENEW SEARCH FOR LOST GIRL

The police have been asked to renew the search for Miss Hazel Taylor, alias Louise Mayor, 25 years old, who disappeared in April, 1919, while employed as a nurse girl. The juvenile protective association, 816 South Halsted street, has been asked by the aged parents in Quincy, Mass., to aid in the search for their daughter. The girl left home in 1916.

Copper Trade Brighter.
In the copper industry a great lead was lifted from the shoulders of the producers of that metal by the arrangements made during the week to finance through the Copper Export association 400,000,000 pounds of surplus stocks, involving $70,000,000.

Great assistance, it is expected, will be rendered all lines of industry by the new $100,000,000 organization formed to finance American export trade by extending credit to the solvent nations of Europe.

MELROSE PARK STORM VICTIMS OPEN FUND QUIZ

More than fifty citizens of Melrose Park and Maywood, victims of the tornado which last spring wrecked many homes in the two villages, held a meeting yesterday to protest against the manner in which the $95,000 relief fund was distributed.

Charges were made that no accurate accounts of the receipt or dispensing of funds had been kept by the relief committee, of which Charles J. Wolf, president of the village of Melrose Park, is chairman. Steps were taken to compile a complete list of donors to the fund in an effort to show misappropriation.

The meeting was held in the home of Herman Nottmeyer, 902 Sixteenth avenue, one of the victims, and a committee was appointed to classify all the expenditures which have been made from the fund.

Calls It Politics.
Mr. Wolf and H. W. Tolsted, president of Maywood, who is vice chairman of the committee, declared the charges were nonsensical, and that all funds would be fully accounted for.

"The whole thing is a political affair," Mr. Wolf said, "and is simply an attempt to discredit the members of the committee politically. A full report of all receipts and disbursements, certified to by a public accountant, is now in the hands of the printers and will be distributed to all donors and recipients of the fund."

Complete Record of Funds.
"There is absolutely no truth in the charges," said Mr. Tolsted. "I see where these people are charging that the Red Cross fund of $25,000 was not accounted for. The Red Cross fund was not $25,000 but $21,000, and it was put into the general fund and a complete record made of it."

HAITI PICTURED AS WEAK SISTER IN KNAPP REPORT

U. S. Must Keep Eye on It, Admiral Says.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Feb. 13.—(Special.)—The maintenance of tranquility and security in Haiti is still absolutely dependent upon the presence of the United States forces of occupation, Admiral H. S. Knapp, who recently made an exhaustive investigation of conditions in Haiti for the navy and state departments, says this is his firm and deliberate opinion, unless the existing treaty is abrogated which declares it "out of the question."

Much of the agitation against the military occupation is merely to gain hearing and the sympathy of people in the United States while the real object has been to ask the abrogation of the treaty and the return to the Haitians of the management of public affairs, the admiral declares.

Want U. S. to Play Cop.
"Could this, which I believe to be the real object of the agitators, be attained, I think that 999 Haitians out of a thousand would be glad to see the American forces of occupation remain here to enforce good order," the admiral says. "In other words, even the worst agitators among the Haitians want the United States to act as policeman and otherwise leave them to their own devices."

"All the agitation going on is done by less than one tenth of one per cent of the Haitian people. Estimating the population of Haiti at from two to two and one-half millions this would mean between 2,000 and 2,500 agitators. I have this figure as a conservatively exaggerated estimate. It has been reported to me that Haitians themselves have said that only between three and four hundred of the Haitian people are agitators against the United States."

Want Offices for Spoils.
That it is not freedom or liberty that is sought by the agitators but license that will enable them to proceed in the old manner where public office was a recognized opportunity of private enrichment is the opinion expressed in the report which continues:
"Ninety-five per cent would be expected for the benefit of 5 per cent. The 5 per cent would enjoy less real freedom than they do now, for the treaty and the forces of occupation protect them from harpies of their own race. Should the United States, having put its hand to the plow, withdraw, leaving the political agitators to their own devices it would in my opinion be surrendering the true liberty and true interest of 95 per cent of the population—probably more—and encouraging the unworthy minority to go on with their dishonest, arbitrary and tyrannical measures at the expense of an overwhelming part of the Haitian people."

Some Graft Concealed.
"As it is now, a great portion of the total revenue as is possible under the terms of the treaty is honestly collected and the revenue so collected is honestly spent. While it is probably impossible to state that graft does not still exist, it is concealed graft unknown to the United States treaty officials."

Summing up the situation, Admiral Knapp says:
"The people of the United States should not allow themselves to be deceived by the words 'republic of Haiti' to believing that there exists in Haiti, as ever has, a republic in any true sense, founded upon the expressed will of an intelligent and educated electorate."

He was vice president of the international chamber of commerce in Paris and represented his country at the international finance conference in Brussels.

ate. The so-called republic of Haiti, left to itself, has been a tyrannical oligarchy in which those in power fattened upon the vast mass of the people. Tranquillity and security now exist practically throughout Haiti. This is the direct result of American armed intervention."

ROME OFFICIALLY CONFIRMS HONOR FOR DOUGHERTY

ROME, Feb. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—The vatican announced today that the Most Rev. Dennis J. Dougherty, archbishop of Philadelphia, would be created a cardinal at the secret consistory to be held early in March.

Monsignor Dougherty will be the only new American cardinal named at the next consistory. Archbishop Mundelein of Chicago and Archbishop Hayes of New York, although they probably will receive the red hat before long, will not be included in the appointments in March, even as cardinals "reserved in pectore."

Monsignor Dougherty is expected to arrive in Rome on Feb. 25.

Monsignor Corbelli, Papal undersecretary of state, gave a dinner in his own apartment in the vatican today in honor of Archbishop Hayes.

Pope Benedict today appointed Patrick Francis Marion of Asheville, N. C., the Very Rev. Philip S. Garand of Ogdensburg, New York, the Rev. John F. Glavin, the Rev. John T. Slattery, and the Rev. Michael J. Looney of Albany, N. Y., and the Very Rev. G. L. Hazen, the Very Rev. G. T. Brady, and the Rev. M. K. Norton of Dubuque, Iowa, to be his domestic prelates.

The pontiff conferred the decoration of commander of the Order of St. Gregory the Great on Joseph C. Policier of Boston and knighthood of the same order on Edward W. Buckley, St. Paul, Minn.; Daniel Callahan, Baltimore; Martin H. Carmody, Grand Rapids, Mich.; William Dwyer, St. Paul, Minn.; William McGinley, New York; James MacGraw, Oklahoma; and Joseph Scott, Los Angeles, Cal.

JAPS IN CHINA SEEK ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENTS

Stronger Foothold for Nippon Seen.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

SHANGHAI, Feb. 13.—Economic cooperation with China will be the main theme for discussion at a conference of Japanese chambers of commerce in China, which opened here yesterday.

Eight cities are represented, and the sessions are expected to last five days. Resolutions to be discussed will include economic cooperation of Japan and China, abolition of foreign settlements and concessions, the establishment of a financial group to prevent unnecessary competition among Japanese investors and develop China's resources, the establishment of schools, the establishment of charity hospitals, the establishment of a large Chinese and Japanese banking institution with branches in the principal cities, and the establishment of agricultural experiment stations.

Jap Railroads in China.

Plans will be discussed for the building of all projected Japanese railways in China and the establishing of a currency exchange in the interior cities to help the economy of the yen. It is intended to petition the government to give Japanese merchants in China subsidies. The situation in Mongolia will be considered and the Japanese, to show their sincerity toward China, will urge the establishing of Japanese newspapers in all the principal cities of the country.

Officials to Attend.
The sessions will be attended by Japanese officials, as well as business men. The economic cooperation scheme has been hinted at during the last year by certain sections of Japanese politicians. Baron Tullimura, former Shanghai business man, has been traveling through China the last six months, studying Japan's attitude toward China and its effect on business. The Japanese militarists still have the upper hand on commercial interests in carrying out the policy in China.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF GRANT PLEADS FOR OLD RUSSIA

Princess Leads $150,000 Drive for Refugees.

Princess Cantacuzene, Countess Spensky, niece of the late Mrs. Potter Palmer and granddaughter of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, arrived in Chicago yesterday in the interest of a campaign to raise $150,000 for Russian relief which will be launched next Monday. She is the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer, 1650 Lake Shore drive.

Princess Cantacuzene is chairman of the board of directors of the American central committee for Russian relief. With her husband, she has been an exile from Russia for three years. The Cantacuzene estate in Russia was seized by the bolsheviks, and much of their property has been destroyed. "There are in all about 2,000,000 refugees from Russia," Princess Cantacuzene said last night. "Many of these are men and women who ranked as our intellectuals. All are willing to work, but they are unable to obtain it. They are starving."

Exchange Rate Will Keep. "If Americans only realized how much their money, at the present rate of exchange, will buy in Russia, I know every one would find a few dollars to spare for this cause."

The plight of many of the gentle folk is appalling. A woman, who owned estates adjoining ours, Mme. Trimbailoff, wrote me she and her daughters had escaped from Russia. Her son, however, was shot by the bolsheviks, and her brother died of typhus.

This woman is 72 years old. She wanted to work, but her clothes were in such condition she could not take a position. And her daughters were in the same plight. I sent them $25. Recently I have received acknowledgment of this little help. Small as the sum was, it was sufficient to buy clothes for all three. The mother is now employed in a box factory and the two daughters are teaching school.

Why U. S. Should Help. "There is every reason why the United States should help these exiles. They are of the people who fought with the Allies and helped save Paris. They represent the only Allied army that got into Germany; they are the people who can defeat Bolshevism and establish a stable government in Russia. What help Americans give them now in their dire need will be the foundation of a friendship between this country and rehabilitated, reclaimed Russia."

Princess Cantacuzene is scheduled to address several meetings in the interests of the cause she is fostering. At 2 o'clock today she will address the Englewood Woman's club; Thursday, a noon meeting of the Wilmette Woman's club, and, Thursday evening, a meeting of the Hyde Park Men's club. She will address a noon meeting of the City club Saturday.

WOMAN'S LOSS OF MEMORY LAID TO FEAR FOR CHILD

Experts Decide She Will Recover.

Mrs. Estelle Foetisch, amnesia victim, who was found wandering near Jackson park Friday, gave the first signs last night that her memory was returning. Dr. Herman N. Bundesen and Alex S. Hirschfeld, health department neurologist, examined her at the South Shore hospital and agreed that her memory will return in time. They declared her to be suffering from hysterical retroactive amnesia, produced by fear.

Mrs. Foetisch, it is said, has lived in mortal terror that her 4-year-old son, Vincent, would be taken far away from her by her former husband, John G. Udrowske, father of the boy. Saturday she recognized the child when he was led into her room by Dr. Bundesen, but she did not know her husband or her relatives.

Remembers Events Since Attack

"Her memory is especially keen concerning everything that has happened since Friday," Dr. Bundesen said. "Last night she appeared startled when old friends were mentioned. It was the first sign we have had that her memory would ever return."

"Dr. Hirschfeld and I agree that constant association in her old surroundings will bring her memory back. We believe it will come like a flood—everything will return at once."

Feared Loss of Child

According to her former sister-in-law, Mrs. Mathilda Wickert, of 2740 Ward street, she has been grief stricken over her separation from her child and feared Udrowske would take him so far away that she might never see him. Udrowske was granted a divorce on July 30, 1920, and was given custody of the boy, with the stipulation that the mother could visit him every two weeks. Nine days after the divorce was granted she and Carl Foetisch, a steel worker in Hammond, Ind., were married in Crown Point.

HAMMOND FOR A CABINET JOB IS HINT IN FLORIDA

Wisewood Tells Troubles of Merchant Marine.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 13.—(Special.)—A "drive" for the appointment of John Hays Hammond as secretary of commerce will be started this week. Mr. Hammond has written to friends here that he would accept. Mr. Harding has given no indication of intention, but the appointment is considered likely, as the cabinet situation will be thrashed out in a few days with the aid of Will H. Hays, Harry M. Daugherty, Fred W. Upham, and others. Senators McCormick, Illinois, and McNary, Oregon, had luncheon with Mr. Harding today. Mr. McCormick reported on his European tour. Mr. McNary discussed reconstruction plans for the west and the appointment of Pacific coast shipping board members. May Name Chamberlain. Mr. Harding intends to appoint George Chamberlain, former senator from Oregon, Democrat. Henry A. Wisewood of New York, a leading preparedness advocate, tomorrow will present facts regarding the merchant marine, canal zone defense, Japanese situation, and other matters of national moment. He is here at the invitation of Mr. Harding.

After summarizing the world shipping situation, Mr. Wisewood has this to offer as a remedy:

Take the government out of the shipping business and sell to our citizens government ships at a price that will place their purchasers on an even footing with foreign owners in respect to capital charges.

Write off the difference between war and peace values as cost of war.

Give Yankees Even Break.

Permit American owners who bought tonnage at war prices to depreciate their costs for purposes of taxation at a sufficient rate to bring their capital charges to parity with those of the world. It is thought that 12 1/2 per cent per year for five years would do this.

Permit American owners to employ officers and engineers of any nationality. We have not enough skilled men for work both ashore and afloat. American citizenship is not a requisite condition of the right to hold a skilled man's job ashore; it should not be so at sea. As for sailors, it is believed that from 1 per cent to 5 per cent of the crews of American ships are Americans.

Repeal the objectionable features of the seaman's act of 1915 and so much of the merchant marine act of 1920 as is likely to precipitate trade wars, injurious discrimination in foreign ports, etc.

While we are showing quality furs at prices that represent remarkable values—we have not, nor will we at any future time purchase, the class of merchandise that is being specially produced to satisfy the demand for "cheap prices."

There is nothing more expensive than "cheap furs"—nothing so reasonable as a Quality Fur at the right price.

NEW YORK GETS WORSE 'N' WORSE! ON, ON, VOLIVA!

Halts Move to Free Him on Technicalities.

New York, boasting its Broadway night lights, and chorus girls, faces division for the second time within eighteen years by a white robed army from Zion City. Wilbur, Allen Voliva, may be the leader of the new attack. Helen Bulmann and Belle Schellhorn, Voliva's envoys, who went to New York two weeks ago, reported yesterday that the hour to reform New York has struck. New Yorkers, they said, are getting "worse and worse."

"Press Blue Laws Now."

This is the psychological time to bring the blue law issue to a head," asserted Attorney Theodore Forney, private counsel for Voliva. "Many of the things Zion advocated have come to pass. Our war on the movies has spread to twenty-five states, and the word 'liquor' is a historical phrase."

In 1903 John Alexander Dowie, founder of Zion City, led 3,000 Zionists against New York. He claimed then to be Elijah II. There were few converts, and New Yorkers gambled on even more easily than before.

Is the World Round?

Scientists, astronomers and college professors are also new targets for Voliva.

He will give $1,000 to the first college professor, scientist or astronomer who can prove to me that the globe is round," Voliva said yesterday. "And I don't want them to come back with the old stuff that you can sail around the earth. You don't sail around the earth, you circle its flat surface."

"The earth is like a pie pan, with the north pole in the center. Why if the earth were round, the Australians who are beneath us, according to all astronomers, would have to have hooks on their feet to keep from falling off. There is no such thing as gravity."

U. OF I. MELTING POT DEDICATES SOCIAL CENTER
Urbana, Ill., Feb. 13.—The international rooms of the Wesley foundation at the University of Illinois were dedicated today by Bishop William F. McDowell of Washington, D. C.

There are at the university 245 students from thirty-two countries other than the United States, and the dedication exercises were participated in by many foreign students, various international insignia being displayed.

The rooms were given by Mrs. Fannie El Jolly of Grayville, Ill., in memory of her son, Mayo Jolly.

"Our endeavor here," Bishop McDowell said, "is to develop an institution, a ministry, that will be useful to the world when this war and all wars have passed. It is our desire to establish relations that are steadfast and eternal, even though we project them at a time when the earth is rocking under our feet."

"War, however, has thrown the nations together. We did not know how small the world was or how human it was until the whole world looked itself in the face. The world will never be broken up again into a multitude of separate nationalities and governments."

WOMAN PIONEER HAS READ THE TRIBUNE FOR SEVENTY YEARS

For seventy years a reader of THE TRIBUNE. This is the record of Mrs. Gudve Reke Nelson, who yesterday celebrated her ninety-fourth birthday anniversary at her home, 2334 Armitage avenue, where she has resided for forty-one years.

Mrs. Nelson came to Chicago in 1850 from Norway, and shortly after her arrival, she says, began to learn the English language through THE TRIBUNE.

She clearly remembers Fort Dearborn, the ferryboat at Rush street, and the floating bridge at Kinzie street. In 1852 she resided in Wabash avenue near Madison street. Her husband, John Nelson, came to Chicago in 1847, the year in which THE TRIBUNE was founded, when the city's population was 16,859. Mrs. Nelson is still vigorous and active despite her advanced age.

IF YOU'RE NOT ON MORAL SKIS YOU MAY DRINK IN S. D.

Citizenship, Liberty, Take on a New Meaning!

—ASSOCIATED PRESS.
Pierre, S. D., Feb. 13.—Personal liberty, which includes a way whereby those who are temperate and good citizens, as the term "good citizen" is defined, can manufacture, buy, and sell liquors that are termed "stimulating," is the keynote of a bill introduced in the legislature here by Representative Fred C. Ohman, at the request of R. O. Richards of Mitchell, S. D.

The bill provides that "on and after the enactment of this law every person of legal age not convicted of crime or detained in state institutions shall again be accorded moral liberty in diet under law and order as provided in this act."

The bill defines a citizen as "a respected person who is moral and, therefore, entitled to respect and personal liberty in every way and entitled to enter the state moral civil service and to vote, to sell, buy and use stimulant by complying with the legal requirement of residents and naturalization and federal statutes."

Liberal, Sensible Dictionary.
The word stimulant is defined in the bill as "any pure vinous, malt, brewed, fermented, or distilled pure liquors containing the pure spirit of wine from fruits and seeds—not toxin, rectified, poisonous, or impure, and not used in a drunkard's way for beverage purposes, but in a temperate way for stimulating purposes."

The term "intoxicating liquors" is defined in the bill as "any rectified poisonous, impure liquor, such as moonshine, poisonous home brew, and immature wine."

The bill would declare immoral and prohibited the sale or any form of public place for the sale of intoxicating liquor or stimulants by the glass or individual drink for beverage, medicinal, or stimulating purposes.

The bill says, however, that "no person, active manager of any firm, business, club, association, or corporation within this state shall manufacture, import, or aid in importing for sale, barter, or trade any spirituous or vinous liquors, except upon issuance of a municipal moral permit."

Telling the Wide, Wide World.
To obtain this permit the bill provides for an application in writing, to be published by the clerk or auditor in three issues of the daily or weekly newspaper with the largest circulation, giving the date and hour of the meeting of the commissioners to decide upon the application.

At this time the public must have opportunity to object to or endorse the granting of the application. If the application is granted a bond of $5,000 must be filed for faithful performance.

To a close observer, constant testing seems the rule. And so it is. Ore, coal, coke must line up to rigid standards. The iron from the blast furnace must be better than standard basic iron. DAVIS DE TRIAL AS TO CLEAR

Suspect Sick High F

(BY A STAFF COR.)
Morocco, Ind., Feb. 13.—Declining the proffered friendship of a local teacher, a man, under indictment of murder in connection with the shooting of a woman, declined to face trial in the eyes of his friends. 'INDIAN PLOTTER' PENS VIEW OF U.S. IN GERMAN PAPER

Albert H. Wehde, art dilettante and one of the four "Indian plotters" convicted before Judge Landis in 1917 on charges of attempting to foment a revolution in India while England was at war, gives some interesting views on American political and social affairs in a letter which recently appeared in Grensbote, a magazine published in Germany.

He was sentenced to serve three years in Leavenworth penitentiary in 1917, but appealed. The decision was affirmed Dec. 17, 1920, but is still pending on a petition for a rehearing. Wehde is out on bail.

New England Seat of Culture.

"The center of all American culture lies in the states of New England," Wehde wrote in Grensbote. "The ranking society there cultivates not only the English accent and English habits but also English thought. The man of the people who has grown wealthy and permits himself to remain true to the old American traditions finds no welcome for wife and daughter in the so-called better circles. Thus sooner or later he succumbs to the social ambition of the feminine members of the household. The higher institutions are compelled, frequently against their wishes, to work an English interest into the minds of their scholars. Conditions are not quite so bad in the west. Here it still is possible occasionally to place a true patriot in a dignified and honorable office. Such people, however, under present conditions can never hold the powerful positions which dictate the direction of federal (national) politics. Therefore it was impossible for Johnson or La Follette to secure the presidential nomination; therefore our brave Mayor Thompson is antagonized. Leading positions are reached only by such men as show themselves willing wheels in the political machine, to be turned as the leading circles in the east dictate.

No Love for England.

"The so-called people have not a trace of love for England, but generally good natured and honest, the ordinary man lacks the courage to treat the matter with convincing truth if such is not countenanced by the government.

"Our country: In her intercourse with foreign nations may she be always in the right; but our country, right or wrong, is the ruling maxim. Fear of ridicule and punishment makes it advisable that one set aside the most elementary laws of justice and honor as soon as official hint is given. The common people of America join with spirit when England is raked over the coals, but I do not hold this antipathy of the two blood related countries toward each other as being of any great import in world politics. In any event, according to my viewpoint, America always will endeavor, with every means within its power to ward off anything that may seriously threaten English world rule."

"I wrote the letter," Wehde said, "after reading an article published in Germany under the signature of Admiral von Tirpitz, in which the admiral stated that America was finally weaned from England and would never aid that country in another war."

"The trouble is that Von Tirpitz did not learn his lesson in the world war. England can still rely on this country in case of real trouble and I wanted to correct any erroneous viewpoint."

Lies Awful Disease in U. S., Ex-Senator Fears

Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 13.—"A danger which menaces the United States is the lie—that dangerous disease that rots first and then destroys," declared former United States Senator J. R. Burton of Kansas in an address at a Non Partisan League caucus here tonight.

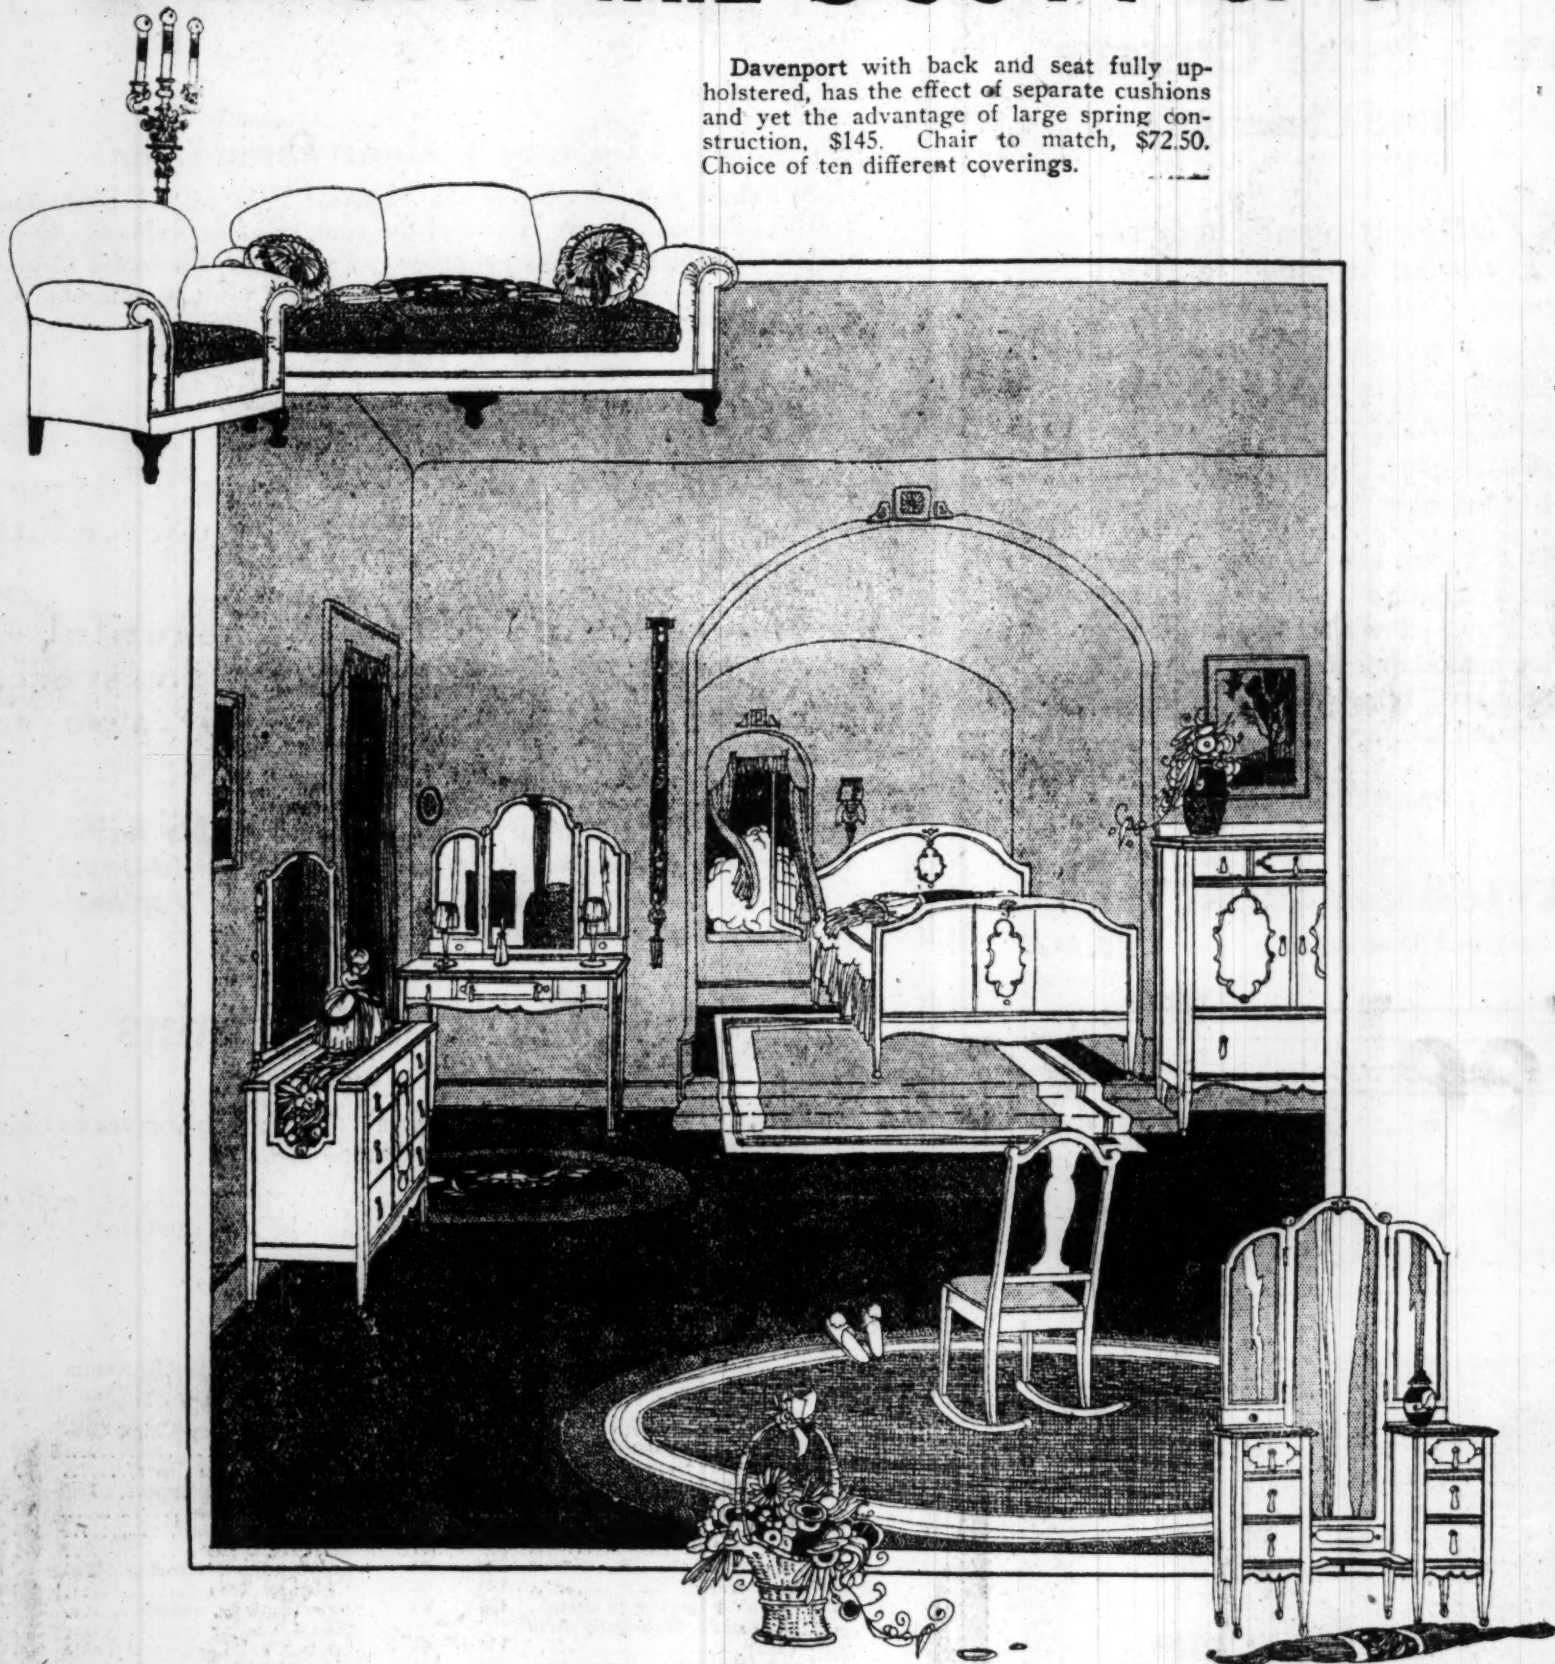

CHORUS GIRLS TO PAY INCOME TAX ON LIMOUSINES

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 13.—[Special.]—The hard working chorus girl who rolls to work each day in her own limousine will not be allowed to deduct her means of transportation as "legitimate expenses" in making out her income tax statement.

Neither are the silk stockings or lovely "prêttes" with which she charms the T. B. M. each night allowable on the expense side of her income tax blank, according to Miss Mary A. McGinn, New York state income tax bureau.

The powder and rouge which cover her dainty face are recognized by the state government as a necessary asset for her job. Bachelors looking for wealthy wives should communicate with the income tax bureau. A large percentage of those who paid large taxes in New York City are said to be wealthy widows.

WALLINGFORD A MYTH? THIS SUIT SAYS HE'S ALIVE

How Man Sold Business for Own Money Told.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 13.—[Special.]—Briefs presented to the Supreme court yesterday by attorneys for Otto Bollman, former president of the Bollman Bros. Chicago company of St. Louis, disclosed details of an adventure in frenzied finance, which, if true, should make the eminent Mr. Wallingford look to his laurels.

The briefs opposed a petition by the Hamilton Investment company and Evan Rees, its president, for a review of a judgment in Illinois courts awarding Bollman more than $150,000 "in an action at law for fraud and deceit" growing out of his sale to Rees of a controlling interest in the plane company.

Paid With Own Money.
According to attorneys for Bollman—and their analysis of the case was supported by the Circuit Court of Appeals—the scheme put over on Bollman was "to take $140,000 worth of Bollman's property without his knowledge and consent, and with it to procure the cash with which to make the down payment on the purchase of Bollman's property."

Rees, as president of the investment company, conspired with E. J. Piper, Max F. Ruler and Clifford C. Mudge of Chicago to put the scheme through, Bollman asserts.

"The plan was for Piper and Ruler to buy through Mudge, as a 'straw man,' the brief just filed declares. 'To this end Mudge was to, and did, pose as a man of large means, with a large and growing business, a residence on the shore of the lake, at Chicago, a yacht lying out in front, etc.'"

Only $140,000 in "Change."
Bollman asked $234,000 in cash for his stock in the prosperous factory which bore his name. Whereupon Mudge professed that the volume and demands of his business were such that he could not immediately spare more than $140,000 in cash. The brief continues:

"Bollman finally agreed to take for the balance notes on which the Bollman company should be liable, to be secured by a pledge of the stock when it should be assigned to Mudge. Piper, Ruler and Mudge were counting on getting the major portion of the $140,000 from Rees, who had control of the Hamilton company's funds."

Trap Ready to Spring.
On June 14 Mudge telephoned Rees to come to St. Louis. On the 15th Piper, Ruler, Mudge and Rees had an extended conference at a hotel room. The situation was gone over. Rees was informed that they wanted $105,000 from him.

"On the 16th these four men met Bollman at his attorney's office. A contract between Bollman and Mudge was drawn. Bollman and his directors signed resignations. But title and control were not to pass until the 17th."

THE BANK OF KINDNESS

Draw a Check on It for the Unfortunate.

BY REV. G. A. MACWHORTER.

At a "self-denial" dinner Friday evening at the Chicago Training school for City, Home, and Foreign Missions, 4949 Indiana avenue, "mush and milk" was served in place of the regular school dinner. The Rev. L. F. W. Leseman, president of the school, announced a collection taken at the "self-denial" dinner amounted to $250, which will be divided equally between the Chinese and central European relief work. There are 125 students enrolled in this pioneer school for the training of Methodist missionaries. Everyone present contributed an average of $2 apiece to the "self-denial" fund.

"Armenia faces extinction through the starving of its population, according to Charles L. McBride, 1139 Michigan avenue, and H. H. Dissell, 5532 Maryland avenue, Chicago youths, war veterans, and workers for the Near East Relief, who have just returned to the United States. They left Armenia late in December. They told Charles V. Vickery, general secretary of the Near East Relief in New York, that thousands of heads of cattle and rich crops of grain have been confiscated by the Turks, who now hold a large part of the little nation."

when the certified check for $140,000 and the several notes were to be exchanged for the contract and resignations.

"On the 16th Rees furnished Mudge $105,000. Piper opened an account with a St. Louis bank that never had had any relation with the genuine Bollman company. Piper deposited the $105,000 to the credit of 'Bollman company,' by E. J. Piper, president, and checks so signed were to be honored by the bank."

How to Boost Deposits.
"Piper increased his bank credit by giving the bank his note signed in the name of 'Bollman company,' by E. J. Piper, president, and by depositing a check on the genuine Bollman company bank account signed in the same way; and thus the sum of $140,000 was available."

"All of the above recited plan was unknown to Bollman. He relied upon the manufactured appearances being true. Piper, Ruler and Mudge were responsible."

"On the 16th the 'Bollman company,' by E. J. Piper, president, and the 'Hamilton company,' by Evan Rees, grudent, signed a contract whereby the Hamilton company was to have the handling of the genuine Bollman company's accounts receivable (then the property of Bollman) at a profit of 3 to 4 per cent a month.

"On the 17th Piper procured from his bank a 'cashier's check' for $140,000, and gave it to Mudge. Then Piper, Ruler, Mudge and Rees met Bollman and his attorney at the attorney's office, and the respective deliveries of documents were made by Bollman and by Mudge as the contracting parties."

Rees Kept Own Counsel.
"At this meeting false representations of Piper, Ruler and Mudge were continued. Rees was silent. On leaving the meeting Piper, Ruler and Mudge took control of the genuine Bollman company, and, in pursuance of their arrangement with Rees, delivered to Rees, for the Hamilton company, and without any consideration except the $105,000 furnished the day before by Rees to Mudge, $150,000 of Bollman company's accounts receivable."

"The proximate cause of Bollman company's bankruptcy and Bollman's loss on the deferred payments for the purchase of his property was the above stated abstract of the major portion of Bollman company's net assets, practically all of its liquid assets."

"The Hamilton Investment company told the court that it has been imposed upon by Piper et al., who, it was led to believe, were really 'men of means,' and who it expected to put up the cash to buy Bollman's stock. Rees denied that Mudge was at any time 'the agent' of his company."

ROBBED OF $70 BY TWO MEN.
Samuel W. Taylor, 354 West Seventy-third street, was held up Saturday night by two armed men at West Sixty-ninth street and Normal avenue and lost $70.

"GYM-BAL"

Now is the time to look into the kind of shoes you will need for the athletic season. Here are two Top Notch products that are nationally known and nationally worn—Gym-Bal and Grip-Sure.

You can identify a genuine Gym-Bal when you see the Top Notch cross on the sole, as shown on the shoe in the above picture.

The pure gum soles of the Gym-Bal are full of spring and are so tough that they will outwear two ordinary rubber soles.

The uppers are made of long-fibred Top Notch duck, the ankle patches and trimmings are of real leather.

A cool and comfortable shoe because double cork insoles make it so.

Gym-Bals are just what you want for hiking, camping, gymnasium work, but, more than that, they are high class, well made, long wearing shoes sold at a moderate price, for wear of any kind—indoor or outdoor.

GRIP-SURE

Grip-Sures assure speed and safety. Similar in construction to Gym-Bals, except that the rubber soles are provided with ten patented suction cups which will grip anything—hard wood, concrete or dirt—and, without, the fastest shoe on the market.

If you have never tried a pair of suction cupped shoes, try a pair of Grip-Sures today. Take a pair down South with you on your golfing trip. They will improve your game.

The Top Notch Cross on the soles of canvas footwear, rubbers, boots, arctics, or pacs is a guarantee of long service. There is a dealer near you who sells Top Notch footwear.

FINDS TYPHOID GERM SUMMER RESORT "FLIRT"

Dr. Robertson to Hunt Out
Disease Lairs.

The Chicago health department announced last night that it was at last on the trail of the typhoid fever germs. The department declares it significant that these germs appear in greatest numbers and with the most disastrous results in the autumn, immediately upon the return of the Chicago people from the summer resorts.

The department has started an investigation of summer resorts, visited by Chicagoans, with the purpose of ferreting out and listing those where the typhoid fever germ flourishes.

"It is well known to this department," a statement issued last night reads, "that many of these places, while possessing many natural beauties and in themselves attractive and charming places for people to pass their vacation periods, yet the insanitary conditions of many are so bad as to make them a positive menace to the health of their patrons."

The list of "healthy" summer resorts will soon be published in the newspapers, Dr. John Dill Robertson says, and meanwhile he wishes to announce that "Chicago is the greatest summer resort of them all."

U. OF C. STUDENTS TO FINANCE SOCIAL CENTER IN CHINA

Miss Carmel Hayes and half a dozen other students at the University of Chicago started a "drive" last Saturday to raise funds for a social service center "somewhere in China" to be maintained by the student body of the university. The center will be similar to those already maintained by Yale in China, Ames in India, and Ohio State in Czechoslovakia, and a dozen other colleges and universities.

The "Chicago" drive is a student activity and is backed by the undergraduate council, the students' representative body. John Moulds, cashier on the campus, will be treasurer of the fund, and the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are behind the movement.

Among the other students in charge of the drive are Natalia Greensfelder, Ruth Bowers, Virginia Hibben, Harold Nicely, Richard Foster Flint, Keith Kindred, and Francis Zimmerman.

Caruso Physician Falls and Fractures Skull

New York, Feb. 13.—(Special.)—Dr. Philip Horowitz, one of the specialists who have been attending Enrico Caruso during the tenor's illness of pleurisy, fell from his horse in Central park two weeks ago and fractured his skull, it was learned today. "The physician is recovering, it was said at his home today."

CLOSE GATES TO PLAGUE BEARERS, COPELAND'S PLEA

N. Y. Health Chief Asks
Wilson to Act.

New York, Feb. 13.—Dr. Royal S. Copeland, health commissioner of New York City, today telegraphed Joseph P. Tumulty, President Wilson's secretary, asking the exclusion of vermin-infested immigrants from American soil.

Dr. Copeland declared such immigrants had been passed by the immigration authorities. Examination by city officials, he said, revealed typhus carrying vermin.

He complained that in the last two weeks two immigrants with incipient typhus had been permitted to land. "Neither Safe Nor Decent."

"It is neither safe nor decent to admit to the United States vermin-infested aliens," the telegram said. "Please ask the president to investigate and to take steps to protect our congested city and the country at large."

Stations for medical examination of aliens reaching New York from Boston will be established, Dr. Copeland said. This action was made imperative, he said, by the diversion of several liners to that port in view of the congested conditions at Ellis Island.

Police guarded all immigrants as they landed here today from the immigration station. They were then given a searching examination by the city authorities, in the course of which eleven men and seventeen women in a group of 156 were found to have vermin and ordered deloused before being released.

Dr. Copeland declared that the passenger lists furnished him by the steamship companies were "absolutely unreliable as regards addresses."

England Takes Precautions.
LONDON, Feb. 13.—The local press has started a campaign to have emigrants passing through English ports carefully examined. The campaign is a result of reports that numerous cases of typhus have been taken to America by emigrants.

Last Call!

Positively the final week of the mill surplus clearance—
greatest tailoring sale in history

At 5:15 next Saturday night, the curtain goes down on the most sensational tailoring clearance ever staged in Chicago.

When this sale ends, more than 30,000 yards of fine custom-tailor woolsens—consigned to us by overstocked Eastern mills—will have been disposed of at less than weaver's cost.

There never has been a sale to equal this one held in any loop store.

And there never can be—unless some loop store is willing to sacrifice all of its retail profit, and induce the wholesale maker and the woolen-mill to part with a good share of theirs.

10,000 new buyers have attended this sale in six weeks' time—a testimonial to the alert trading judgment of Chicago clothes buyers.

Yet, don't think that all of the best selections are gone. That's not so. The entire original selection of superb custom-tailor weaves is practically intact—just as it was on January 3rd when we opened the sale.

The yardage is small—that is true—but it's sufficient to take care of one more record-breaking week's business.

The curtain is still up—and it will remain so until the old tower clock on the cupola of the Royal building sounds the curfew hour of the sale at 5:15 Saturday night.

MIGHTY X-RAY TO TREAT CANCER, IS PLAN AT HARVARD

Important Discovery Is Made by Professor.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Discoveries made by William Duane, professor of biophysics at Harvard, working in collaboration with research students of physics, have made it possible, according to Harvard physicists, to secure X-rays of more penetrating quality than have ever before been obtained in this country and these new rays are now to be used for the first time in America for the alleviation of cancer.

While it is emphatically stated by Prof. Duane that neither X-rays nor radium should be considered a permanent cure for all kinds of cancer, it has long been known that radium has a marked alleviative effect upon this disease.

The Harvard cancer commission is erecting a new building adjoining the Collis P. Huntington hospital in Boston, where an X-ray plant will be installed, as well as the commission's radium plant.

What Discovery Means.
The significance of the discovery was explained in the following statement at Harvard today:

"The advantage of X-rays over radium is that the latter is scarce and immensely expensive, costing at least more than $100,000 a gram, and can, therefore, only be used in small quantities. If X-rays were used it would be possible to make the rays enormously more powerful than has been possible with the limited amount of radium available.

"The trouble with the use of X-rays up to this time has been that they are as penetrating as the so-called 'gamma rays' of radium and the problem of the Harvard physicists has been to secure this needed quality.

It was known that to secure penetration it was necessary to secure a high frequency of vibration. The Harvard physicists, after many experiments, found that a physical law known as the 'quantum law' applied to the X-ray spectrum, and discovered that they could increase the frequency of the rays and thus their penetration, by increasing the voltage of current used in the X-ray tube.

Gets Enough Voltage.
"Prof. Duane reports that the tubes now produce under a voltage of more than 150,000 volts, but that a sufficient high voltage has been obtained to make the X-rays very nearly as effective for certain medical purposes as the gamma rays of radium.

"Long continued exposure to X-rays is so dangerous to the operator that the greatest pains have to be taken to protect him from them. In the Jefferson physical laboratory at Harvard, where Prof. Duane makes his experiments, the X-ray plant is kept in a room by itself and the rays are sent out through a minute slit in the wall. The brick wall at this point is reinforced with lead and a lead screen is placed across the door. Many experiments in various places have been made, and it has been found that a person killed or seriously injured by constant use of X-rays.

"I am going to die this afternoon," she said to the doctor, "I am tired of living." "I am tired of living," was her explanation. She has been employed as clerk in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul general offices.

The three girls are daughters of Charles Thomas, a widower.

The first husband of Miss Martha Siler was a freeman. She lived with him two weeks, then obtained a divorce. Then Mrs. Martha Siler-Caldwell ventured forth a second time and chose an interior decorator. Another divorce.

Harry Leaves a Note.
Yesterday Harry had not been home all night. Mrs. Diamond, who returned late from the home of a friend, awoke to find she had overlooked a note on the bureau. It read:

"Dear Little Sweetheart: I am not going to do you any harm to myself but I am going to pay for the wrong I am going to do you. You will know in a day or so what it's all about. Don't go away until the case is settled and you are free. Forgive me, love, as I am going to pay for it.

"I am the only one to blame and am going to suffer for it. Let the law take its course. With all my love, HARRY.

"P. S. Don't worry, darling, as you are not to blame and I am not worth worrying about. I guess you will come to see me, but please don't send me, as you always meant the world to me and always will. Good-bye, love, and don't worry and wait until you are notified by the authorities what course to follow. Use good sense and don't pity me. H."

A Bigamist.
When Mrs. Diamond had folded the somewhat mysterious epistle Detective Sergeant Killen and Dunn of the bureau entered.

"Your husband, who is a bigamist, is under arrest at 1257 North La Salle street. He said he separated from her a year later, leaving her baby, Lawrence, in her custody.

FIFTH ODOR BOMB WITHIN A WEEK PLACED IN MOVIE

Crowe Plans to Grill Labor Leaders.

While State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe was preparing to renew today his investigations of recent explosive and odor bombs, another stench bomb, the fifth within the last week, last night was placed in the Harper theater, Fifty-third street and Harper avenue.

As usual all of the patrons were driven to the open air. Policemen Frank Johnston and John Tierney of the Hyde Park station, who were on special detail at the theater to watch for suspects, said they had not seen any one they would consider guilty of leaving the bomb.

It is said the state's attorney's plans included an investigation of the statement that Michael Boyle, chief of an electricians' union, had instigated the bombing at the Harper theater. Boyle is to be called to Crowe's office today, it is said. The charges against him were made by L. M. Goldberg, owner of the theater.

Favors Hanging Bombers.
"I am going to put a stop to bomb terrorism by labor, political, or any other sort of clique," Mr. Crowe declared. "A man who throws a bomb should be hung. I'm going to do my best to see that they are."

An odor bomb unworked in a Thompson restaurant at 121 West Madison street yesterday drove half a hundred patrons into the street and stopped business for an hour. Police are seeking a disgruntled former employee, who was seen in the restaurant a short time before the stench began.

All Quiet in Nineteenth.
There was all quiet during the day in the Nineteenth ward aldermanic campaign. Aid. John Powers' headquarters force was busy mailing out letters. Anthony D'Andrea did not appear at his headquarters. Aid. Powers declared that he had been unable to find a single clew to the explosion last Friday night of a bomb in a D'Andrea political meeting.

It is a cinch that none of my adherents would be guilty of an act that would bring down upon me the wrath of my opponent and hurt me," he said. "It has been suggested to me that perhaps some D'Andrea supporter did the job to throw votes his way and to offset the bombing of my house last September. I feel sure there will be no more trouble in the ward."

"I am going to take these flowers to the Highland Park Presbyterian church for the services to morrow," said Mrs. E. A. Then she left the florist shop and has not been seen since.

Her husband, who asked the police to search for her, said that when she left their home, 360 Walker avenue, Highland Park, she stated she did not feel well and thought a ride to Glencoe would help her.

Police believe Mrs. Parkes, who is 41 years old, is a victim of amnesia and is probably wandering around in a dazed condition. She had only $12 when she left, her husband said. She wore a lavender coat with fur neckpiece and chocolate bottom shoes with tan tops.

'BIG TIM' SWINGS A NASTY RIGHT FOR CHIVALRY

When Wife's with Him,
Talk Gently.

Mr. Thomas Winkler, 1534 Otto street, meditatively parked his Ford on Diversey boulevard near Sheridan road yesterday and mused upon the beauties of nature as revealed under the warm spring sunshine.

A shiny red roadster bowed along the boulevard and—horror!—scraped the rear fender of the flier. The roadster bowed a little farther, squealed, and stopped.

The new wife of Mr. Winkler, muttering darkly of things and things, approached the roadster. He said things as he opened the door and noted a couple inside. He said more things when the door was slammed shut again from the inside, with considerable force.

Mr. W. Invites Combat.
Finally Mr. Winkler, 'tis said, invited the occupant to get out and fight. Mr. Winkler was reinforced, 'tis further said, by a gentleman described as one "with a funny mustache."

The gentleman within the car disembarked. Mr. Winkler sat upon the roadway to inspect a much damaged nose. The mustache party fled for a policeman—Lincoln Park Officer Jacob May.

Half an hour later the parties entered the Town Hall station.

"Hello, Tim," began the desk sergeant as he noted the tall form and the swinging heavy shoulders. "My name's Frank Smith," suggested the owner of the red roadster.

What's a Name? Tim Friends?
Sure, Tim, an' 'thats all right," replied the sergeant.

On the blotter it was noted that "Frank Smith," whose address is a vacant lot, had given $100 cash bail for a disorderly conduct charge which will come up for hearing this morning at Sheffield avenue court. Mr. Winkler, still caressing his painful nose, departed satisfied.

Outside the station one Frank Smith, nee "Big Tim" Murphy, labor chief, climbed into the red roadster, inspected a pair of battered knuckles, and grinned a soft, characteristic grin.

"I stood for his loose conversation," said Tim, "until he said something about Mrs. Murphy. That was too much. I don't care about myself, but my family has got to be left alone."

Mr. Winkler could not be found at home yesterday evening.

BY POLICE GUNS

A speeding automobile containing four men and one woman was captured last night by police of the Maxwell street station a few minutes after it had run down and killed Joseph Daugrida, a tailor of 4217 South Ashland avenue, at Eighteenth and Halsted streets.

The automobile was careening south at a terrific speed when Lieut. James Fleming and six policemen—McGlynn, Hayes, Mahoney, Sheehan, Wall, and Burns—who were patrolling the street, halted the car. Their shots brought the machine to the curb.

At Maxwell street station the prisoners identified themselves as Homer Sweeney and wife, 425 South Ashland avenue; William Craney, 2949 Cottage Grove avenue; Joseph Reilly, 4949 Calumet avenue; and Lawrence McGinnigan, La Salle, Ill. Sweeney and McGinnigan are said by the police to have records as thieves.

When the victim of the accident was picked up he was near death. He died an hour later at the county hospital.

Mrs. Minnie Anderson, a widow, 55 years old, 1705 North Mosart street, died yesterday of injuries she received last week when struck by the automobile of Arthur H. Vehnle, 8217 Addison street, as she rushed for a street car. Her skull was fractured. Vehnle was not held.

Impersonation of Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, city health department epidemiologist, by a man who annoyed Mrs. Florence De Ellis, 7331 Dorchester avenue, was revealed yesterday when Dr. Bundesen offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the man's identity.

The incident occurred Wednesday night. Mrs. De Ellis was returning home. She met the man at Cottage Grove avenue and Seventy-fifth street. He had been drinking, she says. She quotes him as saying:

"Hello, blonde."

Follows Her in Car.
She walked rapidly away and boarded an eastbound Seventy-fifth street car. He followed her and sat down beside her. She further quotes him:

"I'm Dr. Herman Bundesen. Here, if you don't believe it, I'll show you." He then produced a health department identification card, and showed her the gold embroidered initials in his coat collar, "H. N. B.," she says. She again quotes him:

"See, I'm the real thing. I can get you a drink, blonde. Come with me to my home at Seventy-fourth street and Oglesby avenue and we'll get the car and go for a ride."

(Dr. Bundesen lives at 7414 Oglesby avenue.)

BASEBALL GATES FOREVER CLOSED TO INDICTED SOX

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

It is the opinion of many baseball fans that the indicted White Sox players may be back in the game this season should the state fail to convict them of the crime charged against them. Not many fans are familiar with either civil law or baseball law.

All are well aware of the fact, though, that three of the eight players went before the grand jury and under oath confessed to accepting money to lose games in the 1919 series with the Cincinnati Reds. Those confessions are on record, even if it may not be possible to introduce them as evidence in the trial.

Defense May Act Today.

Attorneys for the indicted players will go before Judge J. J. Dwyer, in whose court the trial is to take place, today or tomorrow, and petition the state to furnish a bill of particulars. That is a simple way of demanding that the state explain the charges of conspiracy in detail. Then it may be that these players who confessed will not take the witness stand during the trial and the state will be forced to provide conspiracy evidence from sources other than the confessions.

That, perhaps, makes it a difficult case for the state. Unless witnesses who were in the alleged conspiracy will take the stand and testify to that effect it may be difficult to produce evidence that a crime was committed. Perhaps a jury wouldn't render a verdict of guilty unless the proof was absolute.

Acquittal; Then Lands.

When the trial is over, no matter what the verdict may be, the players will not get back into baseball until they have faced Judge Landis, supreme power in the national game. Baseball is different than civil law. The game belongs to the people, and if there is a suspicion of something wrong connected with any player that player must clear himself before the commissioner.

Perhaps the state can't compel any of the indicted players, even those who confessed, to take the witness stand in a civil court, but Judge Landis can put any one in baseball on his private witness chair and ask him anything he desires. Just how any player involved in the recent grand jury investigation could explain things satisfactorily to the commissioner is hard to understand.

Judging by the opinions of experts on civil law and experts on baseball law, it is safe to predict that it may be a tough matter to convict the indicted players, but that not one of them ever will be back in organized baseball.

GASOLINE, ALLEY—A VALENTINE

SPORTS through Eegren's EYES

BY ROBERT EEGREN.

JESS WILLARD, having lived quietly on the farm out in Kansas, with plenty of time to think, has at last figured out just how Jack Dempsey happened to beat him. According to Jess, it was "an accident."

As Jess recalls it, Dempsey hit him while Jess was trying to "break clean," thereby knocking Jess so silly he remembered nothing that followed.

I don't doubt that Jess had difficulty in gathering his scattered thoughts after the fight. He jumped out of the ring, pushed through the crowd, and ran all the way to his abandoned training quarters across the park from the arena, where he was discovered hours afterward. And he told Tex Rickard next morning that he didn't remember anything except that Dempsey hit him one punch on the head.

I don't like to roll Jess of any pet delusions, but his recollection is a bit muddled if he thinks Dempsey hit him coming out of a clinch. Jess may have intended to clinch, but the intention was as far as he got.

What really happened was this: Willard went into the ring expecting to have Dempsey rush him wildly. He thought Dempsey was a rushing slugger, from his list of one round knockouts. He hadn't seen Dempsey fight. His plan was to let Dempsey rush and then neatly uppercut him and knock him over the ropes into the lap of Tom Jones or some one else Willard didn't like.

Dempsey probably knew what Willard would expect, and his fight was planned to fool the giant. Instead of rushing, Dempsey let Willard jab him lightly a couple of times and didn't retaliate. He stepped toward Willard as Jess waited, and then, as if afraid to mingle with his huge opponent, turned and walked back two or three steps. About the third time he did this Jess thought Dempsey wasn't such a terror, after all, and stepped out after him. That was his mistake.

Dempsey whirled under Willard's jabbing left arm and hooked a terrific right over his heart, shifted, and brought the left up with a tremendous swing squarely on Willard's right cheekbone. The blow over the heart made Willard's knees sag, and the clout on the cheekbone—which might

The Dodger Trainings, winners in the City Indoor league race, defeated the Rexos, runners-up, at Emmet Memorial hall yesterday in the first of a three game series for the city title. The score was 5 to 3.

Free hitting marked the contest, the victors collecting eleven blows to ten for the losers. The hitting of Burke featured the Dodger's attack, his bat driving in four runs.

Kaufman was airtight in the pinches, fanning eleven batters, many of them with runners on the paths. Shanley was the best of the Rexo hitters, with three safe clouts. Score:

HOOKE'S WARNER ASKS MORE COIN TO JOIN BRUINS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 13.—(Special.)—Reports from Chicago that Hooks Warner has assured President William Veck of the Cubs that he would join the Bruins this year were a little premature, according to Warner.

PAUL QUIRK WINS STATE TITLE IN ICE SKATE RACES

Championship Standing

Paul Quirk, Norweg.-Am. A. A. 90
Robert Reed, Optimales Canoe club 80
Harry Kasky, Alverno A. A. 70
Fred Green, Alverno A. A. 60
Harry Whitehead, Northwest S. C. 50

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.
Winning one event and finishing second in three others, Paul Quirk, skating his first races under the colors of the Norwegian-American A. A., yesterday won the Illinois state championship by scoring 90 points in the four title events held in connection with the annual derby of the Norwegian-American A. A. at Humboldt park. Quirk won the title after a great display of grit. After three championship races had been decided, Quirk had to finish first or second in the last event, one mile, to win the title. During the course of the race, Quirk fell twice, but regained his feet on each occasion, caught the field, and crossed the finish line in second place.

Bob Reed Is Second.
Robert Reed of the Optimales Canoe club was runnerup for the title with 80 points. Reed won two of the four events and placed third in the other two. Harry Kasky of the Alverno A. A., who won the western championship a week ago, finished third with 70 points.

In the open events, Howard Storch of Swift playground, who is a member of Chicago's school boy team which will meet a similar squad in New York March 1, was the individual star. Storch won the class C half mile and the race for boys under 16 years. Weather conditions were anything but favorable for racing. Most of the events had to be shortened because of the soft condition of the ice, which made it imperative for the contestants to run most of the way instead of skate.

NO FATALITIES IN DIRT TRACK RACES OF 1920

Not one fatality or serious injury resulted from seventy-six days of dirt track racing last year under the auspices of the International Motor Contest association, according to a report by A. R. Corey, secretary, at the annual meeting in the Auditorium hotel last night.

The clean state of the association, which sanctions over 90 per cent of the automobile races held in the United States, was the result of a "safety first" campaign inaugurated a year ago to protect the drivers—thirty-four of whom are recognized by the association—and the spectators, Secretary Corey declared.

The rating of dirt track drivers, the recognition of last year's records, and the sanctioning of meets for 1921 will be taken under consideration today by the directors.

Clarence Pell Wins Gold Racquet Tournament Event

Woods and Waters by LARRY ST. JOHN

Vox Pop on Motor Trolling.

HAZELHURST, Wis.—To the Editor:—In reference to this trolling from motor boats: To begin with, no sportsman does this sort of thing any more. No one with any "gumption" is going to sit humped up in a motor boat and drag a wet string. They are going to learn to be a real angler, a caster. It is the only proper method of fishing to derive the greatest benefit. It is wonderful exercise, especially when one can cast with either hand. It trains the hand and eye, and one is actually doing something, even though he may not be catching fish.

Most guides and resort men are in favor of trolling from motor boats because it brings them in more revenue and makes less work for the guides than rowing for a caster. Another thing, casters are in the minority. Any chump can do away with a weedless spoon trailing behind a motor boat.

Allow trolling from motor boats and there won't be a muskie left in ten years. It is mostly small ones that are caught, some keepers, and once in a long time a fair sized one, but invariably the larger ones are lost because the speed of the boat puts a terrific strain on the line, either breaking the line or tearing the hook loose.

I have heard of one boat hooking as many as fifteen or twenty muskies in one day; all but two being under weight. A large number of those returned to the water die. A motor driven boat will cover four or five times as much water in a day as a rowboat. That is not giving the fish a fair chance.

Additional thousands of tourists are coming to northern Wisconsin every year, and unless we are to see our lakes "fished out" we must pass drastic conservation laws and enforce them. Yours truly,

E. E. TERRELL.

934 PIN TEAMS ENTERED IN A.B.C. TOURNEY FEB. 28

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 13.—Nine hundred and thirty-four five man teams, a world's record entry for a national bowling tournament, will compete in the twenty-first tournament of the American Bowling Congress to open here Feb. 28. The previous record was one of 900 teams in the tournament at Peoria last year.

The list of doubles and singles has not been officially checked, but will be in the vicinity of 2,000 two man teams and 4,000 in the individual event.

YACHTSMEN TO MEET AND QUIZ EACH OTHER ON RULES OF SAILING

With the opening of the sailing season creeping along, Chicago amateur sailors are increasing their activity in preparation for the event.

Members of the Chicago and Jackson Park Yacht clubs have been holding regular meetings during the winter. Many new members have been added to the roster, and new boats which will compete against the old standbys have been purchased.

In any case the rooster should be in the breeding pens at least two weeks before any of the eggs are saved for incubation purposes. Some find it the safest plan to mate the birds three and even four weeks in advance of the incubation season, allowing time for testing the fertility of the eggs.

Northwestern also has a home game Saturday against the strong Indiana team, which looks like the favorite for the title.

Badgers Play Illini. Wisconsin plays at Illinois Saturday in what should be a great battle. The Badgers won at Madison, but Illinois should cop at home. Wisconsin lost Knapp, star forward, by graduation this week, while Illinois lost Hellstrom, a fine forward, by the inability to route. Purdue and Iowa hook up in the fourth Saturday game at Iowa City.

Freidman and Tendler to Box. Sailor Freidman of Chicago and Lew Tendler, the Philadelphia southpaw, will clash at Milwaukee Feb. 28, according to announcement last night by Freidman's manager, who received a telegram from Promoter Frank Mulken of Milwaukee. Tendler has signed and Freidman will go to Milwaukee today to put his signature to the papers. Freidman asked for 27 per cent of the gate as his and 133 pounds at 2 o'clock the day of the battle.

PURPLE QUINTET TO CLASH WITH GOPHERS TONIGHT

BY ALBON HOLDEN.

If the Northwestern university basketball team can shake its jinx it had a fine opportunity to climb out of the cellar position in the Big Ten race tonight when Coach Elder's team tackles Minnesota university at Patten gymnasium.

One other game is scheduled for tonight. Indiana meets the feeble Ohio State team at Bloomington, and a victory for the Hoosiers, which looks almost certain, will put Indiana back in a tie for first place with Illinois.

That Northwestern has anything like a cinch tonight is not to be imagined. While Minnesota never has been a challenger for first place, the Gophers have played good basketball all winter and three of the defeats of the Northwestern have been only by one basket.

Next Games Saturday. With tonight's games out of the way there will be no more conference conflicts until Saturday, when eight of the ten teams will see action in the busiest night of the season.

The week-end games will bring together Chicago and Ohio State on the Maroon floor. Stagg's team won with ten points to spare from the slow Buckeye team at Columbus, and should have an easier time at home unless the slump of the Maroons is more deeply rooted than it seems.

Northwestern also has a home game Saturday against the strong Indiana team, which looks like the favorite for the title.

Badgers Play Illini. Wisconsin plays at Illinois Saturday in what should be a great battle. The Badgers won at Madison, but Illinois should cop at home. Wisconsin lost Knapp, star forward, by graduation this week, while Illinois lost Hellstrom, a fine forward, by the inability to route. Purdue and Iowa hook up in the fourth Saturday game at Iowa City.

Freidman and Tendler to Box. Sailor Freidman of Chicago and Lew Tendler, the Philadelphia southpaw, will clash at Milwaukee Feb. 28, according to announcement last night by Freidman's manager, who received a telegram from Promoter Frank Mulken of Milwaukee. Tendler has signed and Freidman will go to Milwaukee today to put his signature to the papers. Freidman asked for 27 per cent of the gate as his and 133 pounds at 2 o'clock the day of the battle.

Mails Bring Flood of Pictures For $20,200 Beauty Contest

"THEY are prettier every day!" This remark is being made on every side. But the feeling that there are still many beautiful girls who should and have not as yet entered THE TRIBUNE'S $20,200 contest is the cause of concern among many who hope to see their territorial division carry off the honors.

"I happened to be walking down Michigan boulevard," writes P. F. "Suddenly I had to stop. I saw a young lady sitting at a switchboard. If Chicago cares to have a prize winner it should see that this young lady sends in her photograph. Not knowing her, I did not wish to go in and ask for her picture. But if there could be some way of getting her photograph I am sure Chicago would win the contest. I could hardly wait until I had reached my office to write this letter."

Perhaps the young lady referred to has sent in her photograph. On the other hand, her neglect to do so may keep her from sharing the $20,200 that is to be given away in the search for the most beautiful girls in the central west. There will be sixty cash prizes in all.

Ten thousand dollars will be awarded as a grand prize to the most beautiful girl in the section. In addition ten prizes will be distributed in each of the six territorial divisions—the city of Chicago, the state of Illinois outside Chicago, the state of Indiana, the state of Iowa, the state of Michigan, and the state of Wisconsin.

The first prize in each of these divisions will be $1,000, the second $250, the third $100, and the remaining seven $50 each. The grand prize winner will receive not only $10,000 in cash but also one of the sixty territorial prizes.

The contest is open to every girl, unmarried or a widow, who resides anywhere in the five states, except professional beauties.

Select a photograph of yourself or some girl friend and write plainly on the back of it the name, street address, and occupation of the entrant.

Then send the photograph to "Beauty Contest," CHICAGO TRIBUNE, 7 South Dearborn street, Chicago.

Photographs will be published in THE TRIBUNE daily and in the rotogravure section on Sunday until the close of the contest.

The contest closes on April 9.

In sending in photographs do not neglect to give the contestant's occupation. This has been neglected in some cases. It is very important. If the girl has no occupation and is staying at home, state that she is a "home girl." If she is going to school or college, say "student." Neglect to state a contestant's occupation means that the photograph will have to be eliminated.

Photographs will not be returned unless accompanied by a stamped and self-addressed envelope of proper size.

Is your girl as pretty as any of these whose photographs are printed today? Then be sure that she sends in her photograph at once.

She may be not only the most beautiful girl in her neighborhood. She may be found the most beautiful girl in the central west.

Three celebrated artists from the Art Institute of Chicago will decide.
